A BIG SPECIAL THANK YOU to Harry Harne Plastering who redid, as a gift, the entrance columns to our cemetery.

PLEASE PRAY FOR good numbers on Thursday as we get figures for the construction cost of the Church.

NEXT WEEKEND the second collection is for Catholic School Education, envelopes are in your packets.

NEXT WEEKEND are the Parish Council Elections. Please be prepared to vote for 3 people from our excellent slate of candidates.

THE VOLUNTEER PARTY is next Sunday evening from 6 to 10 pm. If we have inadvertently (it happens) left your name off of the invitation list and you volunteered at the Church this past year, please know you are invited. Everyone coming must RSVP by May 15th. It's a tight schedule to set up after mass so doors do not open until 6pm.

St. Peter the Apostle Parish Council Candidate Information

 indicates those currently serving on the Parish Council

Sue Bolger *

Sue Bolger is married to Brian Bolger and is the mother of 3. Sue has interacted with the Parish for 7 years by attending Masses, offering her services as a musician and she and Brian were married by Fr. John. She is originally from a small Parish in Pennsylvania and is a graduate of Mount Saint Mary's University with a B.A. in Music and History and is certified to teach Early Childhood Education. She taught preschool for 2 years and then Latin and History for the Christiana Home School Association. She enjoys many pastimes not the least of which is spending time in the Adoration Chapel.

Margie Gaudino *

Margie, her husband, Rick and their two children Katie and Tony, have been members of St. Peter's Parish since 1989. They chose St. Peter's because of the welcome they received from other Parish families as well as the outstanding religious educational program available to the youth of the Parish. She has volunteered as a choir member in the early 1990's and as a catechist in the elementary Religious Education Program, teaching Pre-K through 4th grade over a period of 8 years. She assists with the yearly Eucharistic retreats for First Communicants and is also a Eucharistic Minister.

Margie holds Masters Degrees in Curriculum/Instruction and Library Science from McDaniel College and works as a Media Specialist /Technology Consultant for Montgomery County Public Schools. Margie has been a member of the Parish Council, serving on the Education Committee, for the past 3 years and hopes to be entrusted to continue to serve on the Council and have a positive impact on the education of our Parish youth.

Elisa Koehler *

Elisa lives in Westminster and joined St. Peter's Parish in 1994. She currently serves as a cantor and as a member of the parish's Music Steering Committee. A professional musician by trade, Elisa is an Assistant Professor of Music at Goucher College where she conducts the orchestra and serves as the faculty advisor for Jubilate Deo, Goucher's Catholic student organization. She also conducts The Frederick Orchestra and plays trumpet with the Lyric Brass Quintet and the Handel Choir of Baltimore. Her brother, Mark Koehler, and his family are parishioners at St. Peter's as well as her mother, Patricia Koehler. Elisa credits her sister-in-law, Niki Koehler, as her role model for becoming more active in the parish. Elisa has served as the Parish Council Secretary for the past two years.

Barbara Kyle *

Barbara has been a member of St. Peter's for about twenty years. She is married to Richard Kyle and has two children, Rich and Jess. Her days are spent working as a Second Grade teacher at St. John Regional Catholic School. Her parish involvement has included: coordination Halloween parties and Easter egg hunts, working with the Family Home program for Religious Education, and coordinating coffee and donuts. Currently she is serving as the Chair of the Social Concerns Committee.

Maureen Marley

Maureen has been a member of St. Peter's Libertytown for 4 years. She serves as a Eucharistic Minister, is a member of the Pastoral Care Ministry and helps on the Hospitality Committee. Maureen came from St. Peter's in Olney, MD where she was a member of the Parish Council for three years, and served as a lector for 10 years. She is originally from Southern California and is the mother of five grown sons. She is excited to have the opportunity to serve the parishioners of St. Peter's.

Kate Cullen Palmisano

Kate Cullen Palmisano has attended St. Peter's for 19 years. Her three sons have been through or are currently enrolled in Religious Education programs at St. Peter's. She has taught at St. Peter's in both the Children's REC and the Adult program and is currently a Eucharist Minister and editor of "Upon This Rock." Kate taught at three Catholic Schools in Baltimore as well as at St. Mary's Catholic School in Richmond, VA. She holds a joint bachelors degree in Social Work and Theology and a master's degree in Community Organization and Social Administration. She is a certified General Practice and Divorce Mediator and is the Executive Director for the Frederick County Community Mediation and Conflict Resolution Center in Frederick. Kate's accomplishments include serving as President of the Frederick Memorial Healthcare System Auxiliary (FMHA) and the FMH Board of Directors. She also is co-chair of the Frederick County Humans Services Coalition. Kate lives in Mt. Airy with her husband, Mark, their three sons, Cullen, Nick, and Ben.

J. Michael (Mike) Riley *

Mike has been a parishioner at St. Peter's since 1992. He lives in Mt. Airy with his wife Ruth and their three children. Their daughter, Katie, is a graduate of Prospect Hall and Kevin and Andrew attend St. John's RCS. Mike was appointed to the Parish Council in 2002 and serves as the Development Committee Chairman. Mike graduated from Loyola College in Baltimore and has a master's degree from the Johns Hopkins University. He serves on a number of non-profit boards including the Fund for Educational Excellence and the Hippodrome Foundation. St. Peter's has been a gift to Mike and the Riley family. "It is a wonderful parish filled with a great sense of spirituality and service." For the past nine years Mike has been honored to help prepare the youngsters of the parish for First Penance and First Holy Communion. For the past two years Mike has served as the Parish Council President.
