SUMMER BOOK CLUB

"NOISE is a no-nonsense book that offers much needed relief."

– Raymond Arroyo

"We should all be grateful for Teresa's profound insights and call to action."

– Steve Ray

Are you looking for some good reading material for the summer that will stimulate your mind and your faith as well?

Join us on June 27th @ 7PM in Sappington Hall as we discuss a book dealing with some aspect of the Catholic faith, family life, or spiritual development.

Book for the month of June is:

noise

by Teresa Tomeo

The most dominant force in the lives of almost all Americans is the media—the Internet, TV, radio, blackberries, ipods. The list goes on and on. Although incredibly intoxicating, the media all too often distracts us from that which is most important, and in many instances, actually fights against our good and noble goals in life.

As parents, educators, and consumers of the media, we have to get our media usage—and that of our families—under control. Teresa Tomeo, a veteran broadcast journalist in both the Catholic and secular markets, makes a compelling and irrefutable case about the dangers of our dominant media culture—and the adjoining immorality that comes with it. Tomeo gives a sobering analysis of each of the nine dominant forms of media, and she reveals how they are rapidly dismantling families and destroying lives.

You will learn:

- The nine dominant forms of media, and how each can negatively impact our lives
- What parents can do to protect their children—and themselves—from the dangers of media saturation
- The effects of TV on children and young adults, and the proper limits parents should put in place
- How to monitor the lyrics of your teens' favorite music groups
- How biased the media really are, and how to sift through the propaganda
- How to navigate your family through the minefield of media saturation

REGISTER for June's book club by calling Carolyn at 301-898-5111 x 14
COST for the book, NOISE: $ 14.00
